E. A. Daniels Drug Store

McALESTER, OKLA.

Some reasons why I solicit and merit your drug and drug sundries patronage

If you are sick, go see a doctor.

Hardly a day passes but that some person asks us to prescribe for some ill or ache. This includes everything from a bad conscience to a broken heart. While we are familiar with the functional performances of the medicines we sell—we are not diagnosticians.

If you have been using a certain medicine or a compound and it has helped you, and you want more, there is satisfaction in buying from us "If Daniels sells it, it's pure."

Or, if we can suggest something which we think will possibly be more effective than the article you call for—other than a physician's prescription—our experienced pharmacists will gladly mention this fact for you.

But if you feel the need for medical attention and to know what is the matter with you—see your doctor.

Then send your prescription to us to be carefully compounded by one of our registered pharmacists.

THE REXALL STORE

May Run for Sheriff.

Candidates for various offices are gradually springing up from all parts of the county, and there is one fellow being particularly mentioned and favorably spoken of for sheriff, and that is no other than Will Oglesby, the popular conductor on the inter-urban. Will has lived here all his life and has a clean record. He is young, progressive and could handle the affairs of this office as well as any man in Pittsburg county.

FOR SALE—A good business lot 100x155 ft. located about 300 yards from the round house in Haileyville. Price $80.00. Call at the Miner office in Krebs for particulars. This is a bargain.

In connection with the picture program now running at the Opera House, they have for the balance of the week including Sunday night, a vaudeville act second to none. Nelson & Ward the original novelty rag time singers. Positively one of the best vaudeville acts ever staged.

R. W. Church Passes Away.

Robert W. Church, known all over the eastern part of the state as "Bob" Church, died at his home, 213 East Van Buren Ave., McAlester, Monday night, Dec. 1, 1913, shortly after 8 o'clock, of stomach trouble which refused to yield to the best obtainable medical ability.

The news of the death of Mr. Church came to his many friends as a great shock as he was on the street last Tuesday in his usual excellent health with no thought of illness.

Mr. Church was born in Crittenden county, Ky., sixty-three years ago and for the last thirty years had been a resident of what was formerly old Indian Territory, most of that time having been spent at Krebs, Lehigh, Lutie and McAlester. He became a coal miner when a boy in Kentucky but, endowed with a splendid intellect, he would seek the best in any avocation he might adopt and it was so in the coal business. From a boy in the pit, later digging coal as he grew large enough, he became pit boss, foreman and later superintendent, the latter position he held for many years before retiring.

During the administration of Governor C. N. Haskell, when Pete Hanratty, chief mine inspector, resigned to accept the mayoralty of McAlester, Mr. Church was appointed by Gov. Haskell to fill out the unexpired term. So well did he perform the duties of the office that he has recently been petitioned by hundreds of miners to become a candidate for the place at the next election and had he lived, he probably would have been a candidate. He was always the friend of the miner and had at all times the highest esteem of the operator.

He was a man of wonderful executive ability and while he insisted on absolute obedience to orders, he would never demand of a man under him any task he himself would not undertake. He was charitable to a degree and there are scores of old miners throughout the district who revere his memory and recall aid Mr. Church had brought to them in time of need. His acts of charity were always carried out in an unostentatious way and but few outside the party assisted knew of it.

He was a 32 degree Mason, Knight Templar and held the highest office in the state some years ago in the Odd Fellows. He was a delegate to the last meeting of the grand lodge of Odd Fellows at Oklahoma City, from Cyclone Lodge of Krebs, where he always kept his membership and was always fond of his association with the membership. He often remarked that it felt like home to him.

His acquaintance was extensive among all classes. He was one of the organizers of the Kentucky club of Oklahoma City and at the recent state fair there attended on "Kentucky Day." Of this visit he talked frequently and of the many friends he met there.

He was a most lovable man. There was none better. Of the highest integrity, he despised anything small or unfair. Of pleasing appearance and address he attracted attention in any gathering.

Mr. Church had been married twice. His first wife was Miss Sarah Craygon and of that marriage the following children survive: Mrs. T. B. McAlpine and Robt. Church, of Lutie; Mrs. C. E. Baumert, George and Alex Church, of McAlester. After the death of Mrs. Church he married Mrs. Susie Edwards who is still living.

Funeral was held Wednesday at 2:30 after which the remains were laid to rest in McAlester cemetery.

This paper extends sympathy to the bereaved ones.

Perides-Crosswell.

Another march is stolen by a young couple of McAlester—Mr. S. N. Perides, manager of the McAlester Candy Co., and Miss Beulah Crosswell, of Holdenville, Okla., were happily married at Wewoka on Nov. 7th, the young people keeping it a secret from their most intimate friends until a few days ago.

The bride has only resided in McAlester a short while but during that time has won for herself a large number of well-wishing friends. She is a most pleasant little lady and Sperro can well congratulate himself on securing such a girl for a life partner.

This paper joins in wishing them a happy, prosperous wedded life.

When You Think of Drugs Think of Us

It is always flattering to a store to have many regular customers. People who come repeatedly must have confidence. A large percentage of our business comes from regular customers who trade here year in and year out. They know our methods are right and they know they will always be treated as we would like to be were we the buyer instead of seller. Why not make this your regular trading place for drugs and medicines?
